

Deirdre Barry

Salty Dog Pictures

Television and animation company Salty Dog Pictures was set up in 2013 by Producer Deirdre Barry and Director Clifford Parrott. The company develops, finances, produces and distributes original animation programming, as well as working with international partners on co-productions and service work.

Deirdre, who is CEO of Salty Dog Pictures, has worked in the film and animation industry for almost 20 years. She began her career in Los Angeles where she worked in live action drama and feature film. Returning to Ireland in 2000, Deirdre has continued to work in the industry and set up live action company Avalon Films, producing the feature film Between the Canals which was released in cinemas and on DVD through Xtravision.

Salty Dog Pictures has been set up specifically for animation and has just completed production on a 26 episode animated series Brewster the Rooster, as well as a series of 10 television ads for Blue Insurance (Channel 4, RTE, TV3, Sky and The Discovery Channel). The company has recently moved into the US market and is working with Seth Green-owned Los Angeles animation studio Stoopid Buddy Stoodios, resulting in the creation of 40 additional jobs within the company.

Salty Dog has a number of projects currently in development including The Mooneys, Bella Travels the World and The Tweckles.

Salty Dog is a global company, currently working with studios in the US, the UK, Canada, the Philippines, India and Korea.
