Glandore Ireland

Established in 2001 Glandore is the leading provider of high-end serviced, flexible workspace in Ireland with nine locations across the island of Ireland. An Irish, family-owned business, Glandore also owns and manages Suesey Street restaurant and the elegant private dining and event venue, No.25 Fitzwilliam Place.

Glandore provide flexible workspace solutions including virtual offices, coworking, meeting and event spaces and private offices in Dublin, Belfast and Cork for companies of all sizes and at all stages of growth. The diverse range of member businesses that the company houses includes early stage indigenous start-ups and entrepreneurs, freelancers, SMEs, international scale-ups and large multinationals across all industries.

Glandore strive to give their member businesses the very best start to their business in Ireland. The aim of the company is to help businesses land and expand in the Irish market. Their member businesses work within a variety of industries. Glandore is delighted to have been the first office headquarters and EMEA headquarters for many larger multinationals such as Facebook, Twitter, Worldpay, Eaton Corporation, Dropbox, Autodesk and now Reddit and Sky Aero.

The team at Glandore are also inspired by the ambition and success of the many Irish start-ups and SMEs that they have accommodated since 2001. Through their Glandore Network and series of annual events, they facilitate unique networking opportunities between their indigenous and international start-ups, alumni and the wider business community to foster collaboration and innovation. As a family business led by three sisters, Glandore is passionate about promoting diversity and inclusion in the workplace and mindful of the obstacles that prevent women realizing their full potential. Their bi-annual 'Hear from Her' event celebrates the women in the business community that have made an impact on Irish life.

"Glandore is thrilled to support the Starting Strong initiative and I look forward to meeting and getting to know the ambitious and exceptional entrepreneurs in this cycle. Glandore firmly believes in the power of community, peer collaboration and shared insights in accelerating business growth and we hope that through our wide network and experience in accommodating early stage start-ups we can be of tangible support to the participants". Clare Kelly, Director, Glandore.
