WHAT IS GOING FOR GROWTH?

ABOUT GOING FOR GROWTH

Going for Growth is an initiative to support female entrepreneurs who have been trading for at least two years and are strongly focussed on growth. Most owner managers agree that it can be a very isolating experience and it can be difficult to find someone on your wavelength who understands the issues involved in successfully growing a business. The Going for Growth round table initiative is designed to address these challenges. At Going for Growth, we believe that entrepreneurs learn best from each other. Accordingly, the initiative is based on interactive round table sessions that are facilitated not by consultants, academics or professional trainers, but by successful entrepreneurs.

Participants are offered a unique learning environment with a peer led approach based on the shared experiences of both the Lead Entrepreneur and the other participants facing common challenges. Participation is free of charge.

The Going for Growth initiative is supported by Enterprise Ireland and KPMG.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Going for Growth is for ambitious female entrepreneurs across all sectors who are located in the Republic of Ireland. The entrepreneur should already be the owner manager of a business of which she is a major shareholder and key influencer. Suitable applicants need to demonstrate significant aspiration for growth and should be working full time in the business. It is expected that the business will have been trading for at least two years.

Applications will also be considered on an exceptional basis from candidates who have more recently set up businesses that are highly innovative and demonstrate significant ambition and expect to be selling in export markets. They must already have generated some sales.

GOING FOR GROWTH COMES STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

Over 800 women entrepreneurs have already participated in a cycle of Going for Growth. In almost every case the round table sessions translated into practical changes within their businesses; they got great benefit from the National Forum and they felt nearer to achieving their growth goals as a result of their participation in Going for Growth.

Some of the many testimonials from previous participants may be read in this brochure or on the website - www.goingforgrowth.com/testimonials

"Increasing support for ambitious female entrepreneurship is a key national priority and Enterprise Ireland is proud to support Going for Growth. I believe our close partnership with Going for Growth provides excellent support to our incredible women entrepreneurs in scaling their businesses and achieving global ambition. Strong peer groups, wonderful Lead Entrepreneurs, excellent formal learning opportunities and frameworks for business growth make this a "must consider" for anyone seeking to accelerate her business."

Leo Clancy, CEO, Enterprise Ireland

"KPMG is committed to encouraging domestic entrepreneurship and supporting diversity and female entrepreneurs in achieving their growth aspirations. KPMG is delighted to continue supporting Going for Growth; this is an exceptional programme for ambitious women looking to take their businesses to the next level. With the invaluable expertise and encouragement of the Lead Entrepreneurs, this programme engages participants with insights and experiences to succeed and connects them with their peers to boost entrepreneurship in Ireland."

Olivia Lynch, Partner, KPMG

WHAT IS INVOLVED IN A CYCLE?

A cycle of Going for Growth involves a time commitment of about three hours a month over a period of six months. Those selected to participate in Going for Growth are expected to attend all monthly meetings, and must be available to attend a full day National Launch Forum at the beginning of the cycle.

SUPPORTING GROWTH IN A UNIQUE MANNER

- Peer support: Going for Growth is based on peer support. The monthly meetings are led by experienced Lead Entrepreneurs, who give of their time on a voluntary basis. Each Lead Entrepreneur selects up to nine participants to join her at a round table to look at common issues, share experiences and explore ideas and strategies for growing their businesses.
- Lead Entrepreneur: The most important attributes of the Lead Entrepreneurs are that they have experience of growing a business and have personal experience of the growth journey on which the participants are embarking.
- Collaboration: In a spirit of collaboration, the Lead Entrepreneurs act as role models to the selected participants and share their knowledge and experience with them. Each participant will find a group of like-minded women around the table. The businesses will be different but many of the issues will be similar. A circle of trust develops around the table and all matters discussed remain confidential.

The initiative has been endorsed by successful business women. Those who were involved in the most recent cycle as Lead Entrepreneurs were Anne Cusack, Chupi Sweetman-Durney, Jeananne O'Brien, Leonora O'Brien, Louise Phelan, Marissa Carter, Monica Flood, Oonagh O'Hagan and Tara Beattie. These busy and successful business women agreed to give their time on a voluntary basis to support women entrepreneurs to achieve their growth ambitions.

Going for Growth is action and results oriented and goes beyond class room style learning and the usual inputs of professional trainers, consultants and academics. The roundtables are designed not to be theoretical or academic, but to be based on real experience of what has worked and what hasn't worked in real life situations.

THE ROUND TABLE SESSIONS

Participants are expected to attend all meetings. They take place once a month over a period of six months at a location convenient to the Lead Entrepreneur. As successful applicants will be placed with an appropriate Lead Entrepreneur, it may be necessary for participants to travel to attend the round table sessions. Unnecessary travel will be minimised, however. The arrangements for the monthly meetings (time and place) are agreed by the Lead Entrepreneur with participants at their first meeting. On successful completion of a cycle, participants will be given the opportunity to join the Going for Growth Community.

A COMMON AGENDA FOCUSED ON GROWTH

The focus of this initiative is on the growth challenge.

The questions to be explored over six monthly sessions will include –

- Why go for growth?
- Is your business model fit for purpose?
- What are your KPIs?
- How to increase profitability through increased sales?
- What resources/capabilities do you need to underpin growth?
- What is the best growth path for your business?
- How can you make sure that profitable growth is the result of all your effort?

Going for Growth roundtables will explore this series of relevant questions with the Lead Entrepreneur sharing her experiences and thoughts on the question under discussion. The other participants will similarly share their experiences and learn from each other. For each session an agenda will be provided to reflect these broad areas. On successful completion of a cycle, participants will be given the opportunity to join the Going for Growth Community.

THE NATIONAL LAUNCH FORUM

Each cycle of Going for Growth starts with a National Launch Forum designed to allow participants and Lead Entrepreneurs to explore a number of relevant topics and to have their first round table meeting. All participants must attend this full day event.

As well as providing more in-depth coverage of key topics, the National Launch Forum provides an opportunity for attendees to network with participants and Lead Entrepreneurs from other roundtable groups.

Previous participants derived great benefit from attending the National Forum.

"The programme really gave me the opportunity to look ahead, spending valuable time out of the business, working on the business. With our Lead Entrepreneur and the other round table colleagues, we all benefited from having open and safe conversations on common problems and challenges as well as learning from each other's perspectives."

Caroline Dunlea, Core Optimisation, Going for Growth Ambassador

THE LEAD ENTREPRENEURS

The Lead Entrepreneurs are not, and cannot be, experts in every area of business but they have first-hand experience of facing the challenges of growing a business. They all agree that if such support were to have been available to them when they were growing their business, they would have found it most beneficial. The following are facilitating the round tables for the 15th cycle.

ANNE CUSACK

In 1999 Anne co-founded Critical Healthcare, a leader in the Emergency Services market providing healthcare solutions at the front line. As CEO, Anne brought Critical Healthcare through many milestones, the winning and retaining of multiple public and private contracts including the NHS, and Falck Europe, the largest provider of Emergency Services globally, the design and patenting of innovative new products, the creation of an own brand portfolio of medical consumables & medical devices and the design & development of their own software procurement platform adopted by multiple Irish & European emergency service providers. A qualified Non-Executive Director from the Institute of Directors, Anne has served on a number of boards, including the Governing Body of TUS (Technological University Shannon). In 2019, Anne was invited by the then Taoiseach, Leo Varadkar, to serve as Chair of the Midlands Regional Enterprise Plan Steering Committee, 2019-2020 and again recently, 2020-2024. In 2021 Critical Healthcare was acquired in a management buy-in and Anne is now pursuing her many other interests.

CHUPI SWEETMAN-DURNEY

After a decade of working in the giants of commercial fashion, Chupi founded her eponymous jewellery line in 2013. Her creative and strategic vision has scaled Chupi to a luxury jewellery brand selling into 65 countries. Part of the coveted EY EOY Alumni and a Lead Entrepreneur on the KPMG Enterprise Ireland backed Going for Growth program, Chupi is one of Ireland's leading female founders and is regularly featured in the press. Chupi designs timeless pieces to mark life's most precious moments. Her award-winning jewellery is destined to become your future heirloom. www.chupi.com

JEANANNE O'BRIEN

Jeananne O'Brien is Founder and Director of Artizan Food Co and Eatto. Artizan Food Co, a leading boutique corporate catering company, was founded in Dublin in 2005. Artizan has led the way in 'Cloud Kitchen' solutions having established their first cloud kitchen in 2008 and currently operate from their state of the art 26,000 square foot kitchen offering innovative digitally driven in-house and flexible workplace catering solutions. Jeananne also founded Eatto.ie, a sustainable frozen food ready meal brand, which launched in April 2020. A direct-to-consumer e-commerce model, Eatto.ie delivers handmade meals nationwide, using locally sourced Irish produce, with no additives or preservatives. Jeananne is hugely passionate about sustainability and holds it at the core of both Artizan and Eatto who are proud members of Bord Bia's Origin Green. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce from UCD and MSc in Marketing from Smurfit Business School, UCD. www.artizancatering.ie

LEONORA O'BRIEN

Leonora qualified as a pharmacist and worked in pharmacy practice, regulation and policy development in Ireland and across the European Union. She founded Pharmapod in 2012, having noticed a gap in the market for inter-pharmacy interaction in respect of the reporting of critical incidents. Pharmapod developed a global software platform to reduce medication errors and deliver safe effective clinical services for patients worldwide. With Leonora as CEO, Pharmapod was widely adopted across 10,000 pharmacies and Long Term Care facilities by corporate clients such as Pillpack by Amazon in the US, CareRx in Canada as well as independent pharmacies and Pharmacy regulators. Pharmapod launched in multiple international markets including US, Australia, UK and Ireland, and secured over 65% of the Canadian market. In 2021, Pharmapod was acquired by Think Research in Canada and Leonora is now pursuing other business and charity interests. Leonora has won numerous awards for business, pharmacy practice and innovation, including Laureate for the Cartier Women's Initiative Awards, and the Tatler Woman of the Year Award for Entrepreneurship.

LOUISE PHELAN

Louise Phelan is a Strategic Commercial Advisor and ex-CEO of Phelan Energy Group, an independent solar power producer that brings low cost clean solar PV power to future generations. Previously, Louise was President for International Payments for PayPal, the world's leading online payment company, with over 300 million active accounts. Louise is a non-executive Director at Ryanair and former President of the American Chamber of Commerce in Ireland. Louise has been widely recognised for her contribution to Ireland including being named the Great Place to Work 'Most Trusted Leader' 2014 and being presented with the Sir Michael Smurfit Achievement Award by The Ireland Chamber of Commerce United States (2012). She was also named Business Woman of Year 2013 and 2017 at the Women Mean Business Conference, and was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Philosophy in 2016.

MARISSA CARTER

Marissa Carter is the founder and CEO of two globally successful brands, Cocoa Brown and Carter Beauty. Her keen focus on export is evident from the expansive list of international stockists which include Primark - Europe, Superdrug - UK, Lyko - Sweden, Walmart - U.S.A, Hudson Bay - Canada and most recently The Dubai Mall - U.A.E. Earlier this year, Carter Beauty won three separate awards at the Global Beauty Awards; Most Sustainable Product; Best Primer and Best Foundation. Marissa herself has received numerous award accolades including the Trinity College Praeses Elit Award; the UCD James Joyce Award; and named by WXN in the TOP 25 Most Powerful Women In Ireland. She is passionate about sharing her knowledge and expertise with the Going For Growth and Starting Strong communities. www.carterbeautycosmetics.com

MONICA FLOOD

Monica Flood established an IT training and consultancy business in 1981. Olas has developed as one of the premier IT training companies in Ireland and is the sole appointed education partner for SAP. Monica completed the sale of Olas to a French public company, Assima plc. and has retired from the position of CEO to pursue other business and investment interests. Monica's experience of building a service business and a loyal customer base in a very competitive market provides an important perspective for growth and success. A great supporter of the arts in Ireland, Monica is a Patron of The Model in Sligo, home of the Niland Collection and one of Ireland's leading contemporary arts centres. Monica has recently been appointed as a non-executive Director to the Projects Arts Centre, which began in 1966 as a small, artist led collective and is now evolving into Ireland's national centre for the contemporary arts.

OONAGH O'HAGAN

Oonagh O'Hagan is the owner and Managing Director of Meagher's Pharmacy Group. A qualified pharmacist, she was in her late 20s when she bought the landmark Meagher's Pharmacy on Dublin's Baggot Street from Pierce Meagher in 2001. She has since gone on to grow the business to nine pharmacies and a thriving online store www.meaghers.ie. She now employs 150 people with further growth planned this year. Meagher's has been named as a Deloitte Best Managed Irish Company for the past seven years and has been awarded Platinum Status these past two years. The Meaghers Pharmacy Group have represented Ireland in the European Business Awards and collected the two top business awards at the Irish Pharmacy News awards ceremony, taking away the Business Development of the Year award and the OTC retailer in the same year. Meaghers have also been named as a "Great Place to Work" in Ireland for the past two years, being named as one of Ireland's Top 30 Small Places to work for 2021 and also collected the award for Customer experience in the Healthcare sector at the Cx awards last year. Oonagh herself has picked up many business awards and was named as Image Magazine's Entrepreneur of the Year in 2016, was shortlisted for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards in 2021, and most recently was named Irish Tatler Businesswoman of the Year 2022.. www.meagherspharmacy.ie

TARA BEATTIE

In 1998, Tara and her husband Brian founded Mange Tout, initially a fine dining restaurant, then becoming an event catering business which grew to include 8 SI Cafés across Leinster. Whilst running and growing this business they saw a gap in the market for a professional hospitality staffing company and established The Caterwaiter. This grew to a recruitment company with prestigious clients such as Facebook, William Fry, Google, Aramark, etc. In 2019, they sold this business. In 2021, Tara and Brian set up their new SaaS company, Prepsheets.com. Prepsheets has investment from Enterprise Ireland and is part of the NDRC start up ecosystem. Tara's career has enabled her to gain deep insight in business from start up, growth, multi site operations, closure as well as sale. www.prepsheets.com

The following Lead Entrepreneurs will facilitate Continuing the Momentum round tables.

ÁINE DENN

Following a degree in Computer Science from Trinity College, Áine served in senior executive and board director positions in public and private companies, including The SCO Group, NewworldIQ, Prudential UK and Accenture. In these roles Áine gained extensive global experience launching new products, business units, and joint ventures. Áine then discovered the world of SaaS start-ups and spent 14 years building the global B2B SaaS business she co-founded, called Altify. There she and the team created best practices, methodology and technology to help sales teams win deals that matter and increase revenue in their key accounts. Áine's insight in establishing and growing Altify was informed by many years' experience in enterprise software, business development, operations, and customer engagement before she became an entrepreneur. Following the company's successful acquisition at the end of 2019 by Upland Software (UPLD), Áine exited the organisation. Áine is a credentialed coach, holds a Dip IoD, and was named in Ireland's top 30 women in tech for 2021. With a strong belief in giving back, Áine is delighted to be a long-standing volunteer Lead Entrepreneur for the programmes Going for Growth and Back for Business, helping foster the success of female and returning Irish emigrant entrepreneurs. Áine serves on the boards of Technology Ireland and the Irish Writers Centre.

EXTERNAL RECOGNITION OF GOING FOR GROWTH

Going for Growth is the brainchild of Paula Fitzsimons who put it forward in response to an initiative on women and entrepreneurship proposed by the NDP Gender Equality Unit in the then Department of Justice, Equality and Law Reform. 'My mission in Going for Growth is to support women entrepreneurs to achieve their growth ambitions and to get more women entrepreneurs into a growth frame of mind'.

Since 2009 the merits and excellence of Going for Growth have been recognised repeatedly by the EU, OECD, and European Institute of Gender Equality. In 2015, Going for Growth was awarded the European Enterprise Promotion Award, Investing in Entrepreneurial Skills. In 2016, the initiative was included by the EU and OECD in a compendium of examples of innovative initiatives. The entrepreneurship tool for policy makers, recently released by the EU and OECD, includes Going for Growth as a case study.

COMPLIMENTARY INITIATIVES

STARTING STRONG

Starting Strong is designed for ambitious female entrepreneurs who are at an earlier stage in the development of their business than traditional participants on the Going for Growth programme. However, the application process is the same with those interested registering on www.goingforgrowth.com in the first instance. To be considered the businesses will have moved well beyond the concept and prototype stages and will have made some initial sales. Starting Strong is aimed at exceptional female entrepreneurs whose length of pre-revenue development, degree of innovation and growth potential are all significantly greater than the norm. They should also expect to be exporters. Starting Strong participants have a specially tailored programme including round table sessions with Lead Entrepreneurs and relevant topic based workshops. This is made possible by the contribution of the following Starting Strong Supporters – Beauchamps, Glandore, KPMG, PayPal and SoftCo. <https://goingforgrowth.com/starting-strong/>

CONTINUING THE MOMENTUM

On successful completion of a cycle, participants can stay connected by joining the Going for Growth Community. Members can apply to participate in Continuing the Momentum round tables, take part in topic based workshops, and are invited to attend the annual Community Forum. Continuing the Momentum was developed following a clear demand by many participants for continued participation on Lead facilitated round tables in order to continue their growth journey through a focus on goals and milestones and the benefit of an advisory panel of peers. Supported by Enterprise Ireland and KPMG, the activities of the Community are tailored to deliver focused developmental support to the individual member and her business, together with enhanced networking opportunities. <https://goingforgrowth.com/continuing-the-momentum/>

ACORNS INITIATIVE

Several members of the Going for Growth community, who have started and grown businesses in rural Ireland, are now acting as voluntary Lead Entrepreneurs on ACORNS, an initiative to support early stage female entrepreneurs in rural Ireland. As past participants of the Going for Growth programme all have first-hand experience of the round table peer learning approach and of its benefits. Going for Growth Lead Entrepreneurs also give of their time in a voluntary capacity to facilitate ACORNS Plus, a growth-focussed round table initiative. Over 350 female entrepreneurs have taken part in ACORNS to date. ACORNS was designed and developed by Fitzsimons Consulting and is funded by the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine. www.acorns.ie
