

Máire Cunningham, Head of Enterprise

Beauchamps

Beauchamps LLP is one of Ireland's most progressive and innovative corporate law firms, with a long history in representing Irish and international clients across all sectors of the economy. The firm was founded in 1803 and employs over 200 staff in their Dublin office. They are committed to understanding clients' commercial needs and providing accessible, responsive service. The firm takes time to understand clients' business motivations to deliver tailored solutions. Clients trust Beauchamps for their teamwork, accessibility, quality work and pragmatic solutions. The firm maintains long-term relationships with clients, with their interests at the heart of engagements.

Beauchamps is embedded in the startup ecosystem, with their market-leading team advising clients at every stage, from establishment to fundraising, IP protection, shareholder agreements, employment law, commercial contracts, ESG and other legal matters. Partnering with startups early on, Beauchamps helps them build strong legal foundations and continue the relationships as the companies grow and scale. They have a strong commitment to diversity and inclusion in the business sector and are proud to continue being a steadfast supporter and advocate of Starting Strong.

Beauchamps is recognised as a leading Irish law firm by top legal directories and serves a diverse range of clients across various sectors, as evidenced in recent client testimonials:

'The department has particular knowledge in mandates pertaining to start ups and venture capital deals.' – Chambers & Partners 2024

'We have found that the Beauchamps team work really well together and are very focused on getting pragmatic solutions to problems and concerns. They are very accessible and work well with both our side and our counterparties.' – Legal 500 2024

www.beauchamps.ie

STARTING STRONG SUPPORTER 2024