TASK

Sinéad Lordan is the founder of TASK, a Business Development Agency specialising in administration, business support and project management. Having moved home to Cork after working in the hospitality industry in London, she has developed a diverse client base, working internationally with Designers, Consultants, Content Creators, Talent Agents and lots more.

TASK works with clients to support their internal business function by outsourcing administrative duties, functions, tasks and responsibilities, to give CEOs and teams back their precious time in the working day to focus on what they do best. Sinéad works with her clients on business consultation, strategies and a variety of elements within business elevation. She develops strong, long-lasting relationships with her clients who she works with on a weekly basis and helps them to take their business to the next level.

In recent months, TASK has launched its Agency Newsletter The TASK Times - a newsletter blog focused on business and lifestyle and covers topics such as leadership and management, organisation and efficiency, culture and communication, professional development, wellness and more for TASK clients and subscribers alike.

Sinéad is passionate about creating an enjoyable and inclusive working environment for her team. She supports their career goals and makes sure that they are able to develop their own personal brand while working for the businesses.

The TASK team have just moved into their new office space in Cork City and are looking forward to providing a beautiful space for both the team and their clients to work from.

Sinéad was nominated for Young Businesswoman of the Year at the IMAGE PwC Businesswoman of the Year Awards 2024.
