

Glandore

Clare Kelly, Director

Glandore

Celebrating 25 years in business, Glandore Ireland's leading provider of premium flexible workspaces, with eight locations across Dublin, Cork and Belfast. A family-owned Irish business, Glandore also owns and manages Suesey Street restaurant, private dining and event venue No.25 Fitzwilliam Place, and Sister Suesey.

Glandore offers a range of flexible workspace solutions including virtual offices, coworking, meeting and event spaces, and private offices for businesses of all sizes and stages of growth. Its diverse community includes entrepreneurs, SMEs, international scale-ups and multinational companies across a wide range of industries. Glandore is committed to helping businesses establish and grow successfully in Ireland.

Inspired by the ambition and achievements of the many start-ups and SMEs it has supported since 2001, Glandore actively fosters collaboration and innovation through its Glandore Network and events series, connecting members, alumni and the wider business community.

As a business led by three sisters, Glandore is passionate about promoting diversity and inclusion in the workplace. Its annual "Hear from Her" event celebrates and supports inspiring women in business, including many Starting Strong alumni.

"Glandore is thrilled to support the Starting Strong initiative and we look forward to meeting the ambitious entrepreneurs taking part in this cycle. We firmly believe in the power of community, collaboration and shared insights to accelerate business growth, and we hope our network and experience can provide meaningful support to participants," said Clare Kelly, Director, Glandore.

www.glandore.co

